Mary Hoff

- Instrumental in the creation of the POW/MIA symbol/flag
- Resided in Orange Park, FL for many years until her passing
- Raised money and awareness to establish the permanent memorial at NAS Cecil Field

EMOTIONAL MOMENT - Mrs. Mary Hoff fights back the tears as she thanks everyone for his efforts in making the Vietnam War Memorial at Cecil Field a reality. In front of the podium is a banner she designed, which has become a universal symbol of the effort to remember those still missing in action and those held prisoner of war. Her husband is still listed as missing in action, five years after being shot down in Vietnam.
